Yearbook

As I work on our yearbook for this unusual year, I am asking you to share photos with me. I would like photos of the holiday programs, of online students at their computers (the ones we took from this end on the screen are not real clear), also if any one has any pics of our fall sports practices, 8th grade fundraising or basically any pictures of our students that you would like to share, I would appreciate it. You could email them to me @ jpoyhar@potomacschoolmontana.us
Thank you

Academic Push Fridays

Academic Push provides some additional instructional assistance to students who were impacted due to lost instructional time as a result of the school closure that took place at the end of the 2019-20 school year. A Potomac staff member will work with attending students in small groups of 2-5. This will ensure that the students will receive a lot of individual attention and support. If your child has been recommended by his/her teacher for this program, please call the office no later than Wed., at 2pm of the week your child will attend. Following are the scheduled Fridays:

Jan. 8th, Jan. 29th, Feb. 19th, Mar. 5th,
